

A Laughlin child receives candy from an Airman in the 47th Medical Group building. The Family Child Care Center put on the event to give children an opportunity to show off their costumes and receive candy early.