

Civil Air Patrol cadet Kara Stevens bears a wreath representing the U.S. Air Force during the Civil Air Patrol's annual Wreaths Across America event at Belvedere Memorial Park Cemetery in San Angelo, Texas, Dec. 10, 2011. Wreaths Across America is a national program that honors America's deceased veterans during the holiday season by placing wreaths at their graves.