2. The days listed above are designated as regular passes. The applicable guidelines regarding passes and chargeable leave are outlined in DAFI 36-3003, Military Leave Program. For military members required to perform duty during these holidays, commanders are encouraged to grant compensatory time-off during the first week following the holiday, mission requirements permitting.
3. Under the current rules for DoD civilians, commanders are encouraged to grant liberal leave; use previously earned compensatory time or already approved time-off awards. Group time-off awards, specifically for the purpose of giving the day off, is prohibited by DODI1400.25v451_DAFI36-1004, Civilian Recognition Program, para 10.a.(3).
4. During your family days and holiday activities, please think safety first. Use your Wingman, apply common sense, always drive safely and continually wear your seat belts. I ask commanders and supervisors to provide the required safety briefings to their personnel and ensure they understand risk management procedures.
5. If your staff has any questions, you can reach Mrs. Beth Harris, HQ AETC/A1KK, at 210-652-6085 or by email at elizabeth.harris.2@us.af.mil.
