

IMPACT

Force Development News

ISSUE 11 – 3rd Quarter 2024

Top Headlines

- DAF Modeling and Simulation Summit
The third annual 2024 Department of the Air Force Modeling & Simulation Summit was held at the Grand Hyatt River Walk in San Antonio, Texas, May 7-9, 2024. Read More
- AF Mentoring and Coaching News/Topics
Find more information on coaching and mentoring at AETC's A1 Podcast. You can also get information on civilian development and AF Foundational Competencies. Read More
- DAF e-Learning Adds Microsoft Teams App
Access to industry-curated training and digital content is now available to all Airmen and Guardians with the launch of the DAF e-Learning (DAFeL) Percipio Microsoft Teams application. Read More
- Civilian Leadership Development School \(CLDS\) Live Events page
Find out more about, coaching, learning opportunities, get zoom links and full details on various opportunities. Read More

- Developmental Special Experience (DSE) Listings
Check out the DSE listings for this quarter as well as updated information. Read More
- Non-Commissioned Officer Retraining Program
Designed to retrain second term and career Airmen from overage Air Force specialties into shortage specialties to optimize the enlisted force for meeting current and future mission needs. This program has expanded to increase flexibility, extend application windows, and establish an allowable percentage per AFSC. Read More
- Civilian Leadership Development School (CLDS) Course Schedules
Check out enrollment information, view the schedules and pertinent information for CLDS online courses, including mandatory managerial and supervisory training. You can also find information on performance management coaching skills course, the Emerging Leader Course and Developing Team Leader Course. Read More
- DAF Coaching is launching Workplace Conflict Coaching for DAF Leaders
DAF leaders can request confidential assistance to address tension and realign their team's focus on the mission. This collaboration between DAF Coaching Community and DAF Negotiation & Dispute Resolution Program is a significant stride towards securing an enduring competitive edge. For more info contact: AF.A1DI.Coaching@us.af.mil or kimberly.mlinaz@us.af.mil

- Air Force’s Warrant Officer Training School activated
The Jeanne M. Holm Center for Officer Accessions and Citizen Development activated the Air Force’s Warrant Officer Training School (WOTS) in a ceremony on Maxwell Air Force Base, June 28, 2024. The U.S. Air Force dissolved its Warrant Officer Corps in 1958. Read More
- Academy cadets join military training instructors at Basic Military Training
Twenty-four U.S. Air Force Academy cadets participated in the annual Summer Leadership Program at Basic Military Training from June 1-20, 2024. They worked alongside Military Training Instructors and gained invaluable expertise through their mentorship. Read More
- Language-Enabled Airmen bridge cultures, elevate missions
In the modern interconnected world of cyberspace and AI, it might seem like everything can be done with a click of a button. Yet when faced with the realities of Agile Combat Employment (ACE) and collaboration with global partners or adversaries in distant and austere locations, the significance of swift communication and cultural understanding cannot be overstated. Read More

- Air Force Recruiting Service \(AFRS\) Hosted Educator Tour at Joint Base San Antonio \(JBSA\)

U.S. Air Force Brig. Gen. Christopher Amrhein, commander of AFRS, and U.S. Air Force Chief Master Sgt. Rebecca Arbona, AFRS command chief, welcomed 36 educators, civic leaders, and influencers from across the nation to JBSA June 10-14, 2024. Read More

- Multi-Capable Airmen training program launches at Holloman

The 29th Aircraft Maintenance Unit launched a Multi-Capable Airmen training program in March of 2024. The program allows Airmen to train on the skills of crew chiefs, avionics, and weapons troops, helping prepare Airmen for the broader scope of capabilities necessary to give the Air Force the advantage in the great power competition. Read More

- Two Maxwell Airmen earn Air Assault badges: you could be next

In June, two Airmen assigned to the 42nd Security Forces Squadron successfully earned the prestigious Air Assault badge through the U.S. Army Air Assault School at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. This July, Maxwell AFB will host the next Air Assault assessment for Airmen seeking to earn the esteemed badge. Read More

- Gen. Allvin adds details, articulates his ‘nonstop’ commitment to ‘reoptimize’

Speaking at an Air & Space Warfighters in Action session, CSAF said the Air Force has made real and tangible progress instituting elements of a broad strategy to evolve how the Air Force develops people, generates readiness, projects power, and develops integrated capabilities. Read More

- United States Space Force \(USSF\) - Newsletters

For the latest news regarding USSF and for access to current and archived newsletters, visit their SharePoint. Read More

- AETC Force Development News and Information

For more information on force development and to read previous versions of the IMPACT Newsletter. Read More

